Everyone loves a parade! The Belleair Holiday Parade will be held on Sunday, December 6 from 5:30pm-7:00pm The parade allows our community to come together to kick off a magical holiday season!

The parade will have approximately 20-30 vehicles/floats and community group participants. The parade route will be from the Public Works (staging area), westbound on Ponce De Leon Blvd. to the round-a-bout-, north on Indian Rocks Road, southbound onto The Mall and back eastbound on Ponce de Leon Blvd. Please see attached parade route.

This year's post parade party has been canceled.

We are requesting assistance from the parks & recreation staff and police department for road closures. Road closures will begin approximately at 3:30pm and conclude at approximately 7:30pm. The Mall will be closed at 3:30 pm by parks and recreation staff. Officers will assist with soft road closures (local traffic only) starting at 4:30 pm and a hard closure at 5:15pm (NO TRAFFIC). Staging will begin at 4:30pm at Public Works complex. The parade begins at 5:30 pm. Once the parade concludes and streets have been swept clean, the roads will reopen no later than 7:30pm.

We are requesting temporary signage of the street banner across Indian Rocks Road to be placed on Monday, November 23, 2020 and removed on Monday, December 7, 2020.

Parks & recreation staff will be posting signage throughout the parade route to remind attendees to follow CDC guidelines and maintain social distancing throughout the parade.

Parade participants will be instructed to maintain a safe distance and/or wear a mask if they are not in the same household and cannot maintain a safe distance during the parade and at the staging area.

Parking for attendees will be located around the Dimmitt Community Center and east field parking lot. On-street parking will be available throughout the neighborhood of Carl Avenue and Barbara Circle.

Restroom access will be made available in the Town Hall.
