Special Relief Permit Request - Clearwater Running Festival

Summary:

The Clearwater Running Festival is an event consisting of multiple races beginning and ending at Coachman Park in Clearwater. Sections of the marathon and ultra marathon loop through Belleair requiring a special relief permit. While there will be no road closure, there will be a runner cone lane with directional signage; police and paramedics will be hired to ensure safety. Additionally, an aid station and porto-john will be set up and removed the day of the event.

Applicant (Millennium Running) is requesting relief from:

- Road closure/lane closure
- Temporary signage (section 74-572)
